CONSTITUTION OF THE GRADUATE STUDENT ORGANIZATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI’I AT MĀNOA

ARTICLE I: PREAMBLE

A. The Graduate Student Organization at the University of Hawai’i at Mānoa is committed to the effective representation and advocacy of graduate students. To this end, the GSO works actively with the University community to ensure that the needs of graduate students are understood and met.

ARTICLE II: NAME

B. The official name of this organization shall be the “Graduate Student Organization” at the University of Hawai’i at Mānoa. The official abbreviation of the name shall be “GSO.”

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

A. The GSO shall be established to provide student members with official representation at the University of Hawai’i at Mānoa (UHM).

B. The four primary functions of the GSO shall be:

a. To provide representative input on policies and decisions affecting UHM graduate students in general or a subgroup thereof;
b. To provide an advisory body to the administration and faculty of UHM;
c. To provide an organization from which graduate student representatives shall be selected for recommendation to serve upon campus-wide committees; and
d. To initiate and maintain co-curricular programs that are relevant to UHM graduate students.
C. The GSO shall take action as is necessary to achieve its missions and purposes.

ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP

A. The organization shall have members, as outlined in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE V: FEES

A. Fees shall be determined by the Assembly and subject to the approval of the Board of Regents, as set forth in Board of Regents policy.

ARTICLE VI: GENERAL PROVISIONS

A. All matters not specifically addressed in these articles shall be governed by the provisions in the Bylaws or by applicable law.

B. The actions of the GSO shall not violate any superseding University policy or rule, applicable state or federal law.

ARTICLE VII: AMENDMENTS

A. Amendments to this Constitution shall be presented to the Assembly at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to a vote on the matter.

B. Approval of the amendments to this Constitution shall require a two-thirds (2/3rds) vote by the Assembly.

C. Amendments to this Constitution shall be presented to the appropriate University authority for approval.
D. Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed by the following methods:

a. A petition requesting a Constitutional amendment may be promulgated by the GSO members. Such a petition must have the signatures of ten percent of the GSO membership.

b. The GSO Assembly by majority vote may propose Constitutional amendments during any regular session.

c. After receiving or approving the amendment proposal(s), the amendment(s) must be publicly circulated for a period of not less than two weeks before a ratification vote may be held.

d. Amendments shall become effective upon ratification of two-thirds (2/3rds) of the present and voting GSO Assembly Representatives.
BYLAWS OF THE GRADUATE STUDENT ORGANIZATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT MĀNOA

ARTICLE I: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Membership

A. All classified and unclassified graduate students at UHM, except for those from the William S. Richardson School of Law, medical students from the John A. Burns School of Medicine, Shidler School of Business Executive MBA programs, and Outreach College students, shall be regular members of the GSO.

B. Representative student governance bodies from the William S. Richardson School of Law, medical students from the John A. Burns School of Medicine, Shidler School of Business Executive MBA programs, and Outreach College students may request to join the GSO. Such requests shall be made to the GSO Assembly by the School’s acting student government. Such membership shall require an amendment to the Bylaws and become effective the semester following the passage of said bylaw amendment.

C. Any questions of membership eligibility shall be handled on an individual basis by the GSO Executive Council.

D. Members shall pay fees of $15.00 per semester to the GSO.

Section 2: Member Conduct Policy

A. General Conduct

   a. When wearing GSO logos members are representing the GSO and must follow the policies and procedures put forth by the GSO Constitution and Bylaws.

   b. The GSO encourages its elected and appointed members to be active participants in the UHM community and beyond.

   c. Members should not misrepresent the opinion of the GSO.
GSO CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

d. In ambiguous conversations, members should preface whether they are speaking for the GSO or giving personal opinions.

e. Member conduct can affect perceptions of the GSO.

B. Media Relations/External Affairs

a. The President and/or Vice President directs appropriate parties to speak on behalf of the GSO.

b. All information disclosed to the media must be done so in accordance with GSO policies.

c. If the media asks a member for information, that member must notify the President and/or Vice President of the request.

C. Procedures to Resolve Violations of the Member Conduct Policy

a. The procedure to resolve member conduct policy violations is:

i. Submission of written complaint by any fee-paying UHM graduate student sent to the GSO faculty advisor in the Student Life and Development Office to be disseminated to the Executive Committee (EC).

ii. The EC will notify the member of the complaint in writing.

iii. Within five working days of that notification a meeting will be scheduled with the member for the earliest date possible.

iv. Discussion between the member and the EC will determine the validity of the complaint.

v. After discussion has closed, the EC will conduct an anonymous vote without the member present. A minimum two-thirds (2/3rds) of the EC must be present for the vote and majority is required to establish that the complaint is valid.

vi. If the complaint is found to be not valid, all minutes and records regarding the complaint shall be redacted so that the member whom the complaint is about has all name and position references removed.

vii. If the complaint is found to be valid, the member may be asked to resign from the GSO following the guidelines laid out in GSO Bylaws.
